<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Write a book review of your favourite book or film. • Write an acrostic poem about the snow. • What is for dinner? What is the dress code? • Write instructions for making a the best 'Hot Chocolate' recipe. Don't forget to use imperative (bossy) verbs. • Write a winter story. • How do people celebrate Christmas or different festivals around the world? Create a poster. • Can you research traditional foods from different countries? Can you write out a recipe? • Write a letter to a relative who lives far away. Tell them all about what you want to get up to in 2026. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Build a snowman! • Create your own wreath using leaves from the garden. • Make giant snowflakes from lolly-pop sticks! • Paint a picture of a winter scene. • Make snowflakes out of paper and put them in your window. • Make some snowmen pictures. Use cotton wool and card, encouraging your child to cut and stick independently. You could use felt tip pens to create art on the snow. • Learn and perform your favorite song. • Design the ultimate chocolate bar. What would you put in it? What decorations would it have on top? • Make a cardboard box snowman! • Make a winter themed headband. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Feed the birds in your garden or local park (they can't find much food at this time of the year). • Make a den out of duvets and blankets. Take a torch and read your favourite story! • Have a clear out of your old toys and you could possibly donate them to a charity shop. • Fill a jar with all of the things that you and your family are thankful for. On each day you can open the jar and share your thoughts. • Write a New Year wish! • Write a letter of thanks to someone that you love. Thank them for all that they do for you. • Give someone different in your family a compliment every day.
